We serve the raw meat separately with a hot stone heated to 350 °C. This allows you to prepare every bite exactly to your personal taste. For the best result, we recommend searing the meat for approximately 30 seconds on each side.

You can then cut it into bite-sized pieces and continue cooking it to your liking – rare, medium or well done. The preparation is simple and turns your meal into a special experience.

Enjoy the pure, natural flavour!

Our steaks are marinated.

Would you prefer your steak unmarinated? Please mention this when placing your order.
