Enjoy a selection of premium meats cooked on a hot stone right at your table – exactly the way you like them. We source our meat from regional suppliers and place particular emphasis on freshness and quality.

Your raw meat is served separately alongside a hot stone heated to 350°C, allowing you to cook every bite exactly to your liking. For the best results, we recommend searing the meat for around 30 seconds on each side.

Then simply cut it into bite-sized pieces and continue cooking to your preference – rare, medium or well done. It's easy, interactive and makes your meal a special experience.

Enjoy the pure, natural flavour!

Our steaks are marinated.

Would you prefer your steak unseasoned?

Please let us know when ordering.
